

If you're called to lead a church, let's talk!

We think your leadership, your desire to pastor and influence a local community, and your communication skills combined with our well-proven support systems, team culture, and problem-solving abilities could make a great combination for a successful local church.

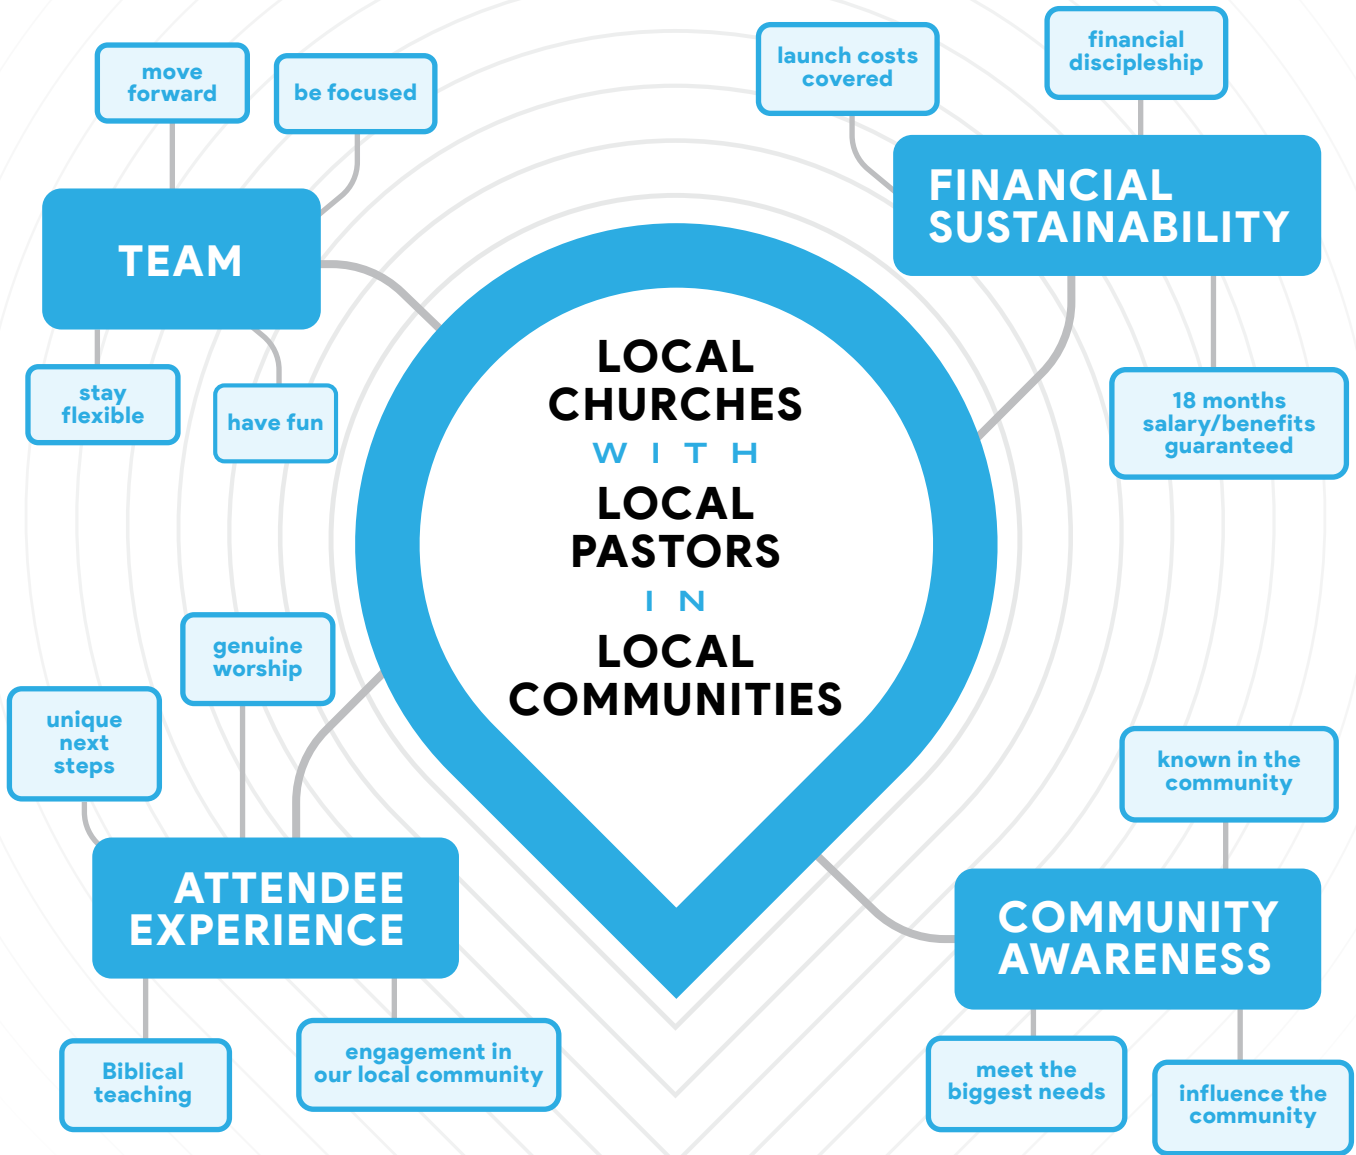

Successfully planting a church is a challenging and, often, lonely road. Local Church is partnering with individuals who are looking for a different approach. We're looking for leaders who don't need to be the "CEO." They care more about leading a church, preaching, and pastoring people.

If you want to lead a healthy church, be involved in a local community, spend plenty of time with your family, and be a part of a really fun team, we should talk.
